

A Philanthropic Vision Through Lucky Eleven Hospitality Group

Gregg and Ashley Young, the driving forces behind Lucky Eleven Hospitality Group, embody a vision of culinary innovation and philanthropy. Their commitment to giving back to the community is at the heart of their business ethos.

Lucky Eleven Hospitality Group: This dynamic duo partnered with accomplished Chef Joel Hassanali to create "Salted EDGE," a modern kitchen and bar concept, along with "Sugared LEDGE", your one-stop destination for delicious coffee, donuts, cakes, baked treats, and breakfast delights. However, their philanthropic spirit extends beyond their culinary ventures and into their Hospitality Group, Lucky Eleven.

The Level-Up Program: Under the Lucky Eleven banner, Gregg and Ashley initiated the Level-Up Program, a shining example of their dedication to making a positive impact. This program serves as a conduit to support incredible organizations throughout the year.

A Year of Giving: The Level-Up Program's yearly nonprofit calendar outlines their commitment to a range of causes, showcasing their unwavering support for organizations such as Angels Among Us, Restored Wings (Rejuvenating Women), PanCan, American Heart Association, Project Pink'd, and the Omaha Home for Boys, among others.

Dining with Purpose: As patrons enjoy the culinary delights at Salted EDGE & Sugared LEDGE, they can witness the tangible impact of Gregg and Ashley Young's commitment to charitable giving. The chefs don different colored bandanas in the open kitchen, representing the organization of the month, and fostering a culture of generosity.

Creating Unique Experiences: Beyond their philanthropic endeavors, the Youngs' passion for culinary innovation is evident. Salted EDGE & Sugared LEDGE offer a menu filled with high-quality, locally sourced ingredients, and an array of options for every customer!

In Summary: Gregg and Ashley Young, through their Lucky Eleven Hospitality Group and Level-Up Program, have not only created a haven for food enthusiasts but also a platform for giving back. Their philanthropic spirit, commitment to local communities, and culinary innovation are a testament to their vision of making the world a better place one dish at a time.
