Women in Wine

March is International Women's Month and as we celebrate the accomplishments of women in the wine industry, our in-house Wine Director, Marsha Wright, has highlighted wines from our list that are female focused and led.

DOMAINE SKOURAS, MOSCOFILERO, PELOPONNESE, GREECE

Winemaker: Dimitra Trahani

$15 | glass $60 | bottle

Since 2002, Dimitra Trahani has been an integral part of Domaine Skouras, where she trained and learned under her father, George Skouras, and currently serves as the Head Oenologist and Quality Control Manager. With a degree in Oenology and Beverage Technology from Athens, Dimitra continues to lead with unmatched expertise and passion, crafting wines that not only reflect her dedication but also help shape the future of winemaking, one bottle at a time.

ALPHA ESTATE, AXIA, SYRAH | XINOMAVRO RED BLEND, AMYNDEON, GREECE

Winemaker: Angeliki Iatrides

$17 | glass $68 | bottle

Considered to be one of the most cutting edge producers in Greece, Alpha Estate has vineyards situated 2,000 feet above sea level and produce some of the most prestigious wines in Greece. At the helm, Angeliki Iatrides has established herself as a force in the winemaking industry, honoring the techniques and skills learned from working directly with her father, founder Angelo Iatrides. Alpha Estate always strive for precision grape-growing and focused terroir-driven wines that are bold and exciting.

CAMBRIA ESTATE WINERY, PINOT NOIR, SANTA MARIA VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

Winemaker: Jill Russell

$19 | glass $76 | bottle

Jill has worked in various wine regions including Australia and the Loire Valley in France before landing head winemaker at Cambria Estate Vineyards. Cambria's winemaking team is all female with Jill at the helm.
