

In 2011, a culinary dream came to life when Veronica Zelada and her children Alex, Ana and Luidgi founded Cafe Kacao. Rooted in the heart of Oklahoma City, their restaurant is a celebration of Latin American fusion brunch and treasured pre-Columbian recipes from Central and South America.

Over the years, Cafe Kacao has become a beacon of warmth and flavor, earning not only local acclaim but also international recognition. Featured in Prensa Libre, People magazine, Southern Living, Travel Chanel, and honored on Yelp's prestigious top 100 list many times and many more, their restaurant welcomes guests to savor the genuine tastes and vibrant spirit of Latin American culture.
