

The Washington Yacht and Country Club (WYCC) By-Laws have been revised. The revisions were made to make the document more comprehensive and consistent with other organizations of similar purpose and size. Significant changes include:

- Added agenda for the annual meeting
- Added details for the duties and responsibilities of the Officers and Board Members
- Added a section on management and operations of the club including duties of the General Manager
- Added a section to clarify suspension, expulsion, or censure policies and procedures for infractions of any By-Law or club policy
- Added a section on general rules and regulations
