The Pickle Bar Masters Presented by Lowcountry Orthopaedics: South Carolina's Premier Pickleball Tournament Debuts in May

$10,000 Purse, Top Players, and a Weekend of Unmatched Competition, Food, and Entertainment

Summerville, SC – The Pickle Bar Masters, South Carolina's premier pickleball tournament, is set to make its debut May 16-18, 2025, at The Pickle Bar in Summerville. Presented by Lowcountry Orthopaedics and Joola, this highly anticipated event will bring together top-tier players, exciting entertainment, and a $10,000 prize purse in a one-of-a-kind pickleball experience.

The weekend kicks off Friday, May 16, with a concert and pro exhibition featuring Jake Kusmider, one of the sport's top players. Tournament play begins Saturday with a round-robin format, with each team scheduled to play eight games. The top 54 teams will advance to Sunday's double-elimination bracket, competing for the coveted title of Pickle Bar Master.

"This tournament is about more than just great competition—it's about building community and celebrating the sport," said Pat Duncan, Founder of The Pickle Bar. "With support from Lowcountry Orthopaedic and Joola, we're bringing players and fans an unforgettable weekend of pickleball, live entertainment, and camaraderie."

The tournament, limited to 108 teams, features gender doubles across multiple skill divisions including Beginners all the way up to an Open Division.

"The growth of pickleball in Charleston has been phenomenal, and we're thrilled to launch a tournament of this caliber," said Bryony Moffitt, President and CEO of Pickleball Charleston. "With Lowcountry Orthopaedic and Joola as key partners, the Pickle Bar Masters is set to become a premier event in the region."
